Gluten free

Harveys, Lewes, Sussex

The oldest independent brewery in Sussex. A family business, the brewery has been in the guardianship of seven generations of John Harvey's descendants since 1790, with five family members from the seventh and eighth generations currently working here.

Still a privately-owned limited company, Harvey's remarkably has no shares marketed for external investment.

We have 3 beers not always available even at their own tied houses

13. Dark Mild 3.0% A masterpiece of traditional brewing. Probably the only genuine Mild brewed in the South of the UK. Malt-driven mild giving sweetness on the palate, followed by a dry, nutty finish.

14. Sisters IPA 3.4% Harveys have rebranded their low gravity IPA as Sisters. Not quite sure why as this is exactly the same recipe for the IPA. Light but with a bitterness in its wake. Fragrant hoppy flavours for what is now described as a ~Table beer. This is what happens when you let the marketing department take over.

15. Sussex Best 4.0% Balanced bitter with prominent hop character. Uses a blend of four local hops, water filtered through the Sussex Downs over 30 years, and Harvey's unique 60 year old yeast strain.

16. Armada 4.5% Dry-hopped. A golden ale with a dry, hoppy finish.

17. Old Ale 4.3% Full-bodied, with hints of dried fruits and dates. Rich, dark and warming. only available in limited quantities in the autumn and winter months

18. Prince of Denmark 7.5% One of the Great beers of the World and rarely available on draught even in Harveys tied houses. A strong, dark beer of great complexity and depth. Brown, amber and black malts are mixed with pale ale malts to give this beer its strong aroma and colouring.

MUST TRY

Hadrian Border, Newburn, Tyne & Wear

Established in 1994 and based in Newcastle on the banks of the Tyne, Hadrian Border Brewery

19. Off The Scales 4.4% Light golden colour. Slightly zesty with a floral aroma and a nice malty base

20. See Ya NZXT Summer 4.5% NZ pale Hazy unfinned pale ale soft stone fruit and white grape, slight grapefruit aroma.

Hawkstone & Butcombe,

21. Hops & Glory 4.2% A Pale Ale. At last Clarkson has stepped into the Cask Bitter arena and finally produced an English style beer. Obviously, he has no knowledge of this uniquely English style of beer and has asked the boys at Butcombe to help him out.

Kirkstall, Leeds, West Yorkshire

22. Abbey Ale 5.0% A strong Belgian influenced bitter made using Belgian yeast cultures. Extremely popular.

Kissingate Brewery, Horsham, Surrey

Started life at a private address in Crawley, West Sussex. In April 2010 registered as a commercial brewery and with planning consent and other permissions granted began the Kissingate journey.

After just a few months brewing from home they ran out of capacity. In September 2010 they found a suitable unit on Church Lane Farm Estate in Lower Beeding near Horsham brewing predominantly dark milds porters & stouts. So, in other words, the perfect brewing operation in the view of Lord Battersea.

23. Black Cherry Mild 4.2% A full fruit and flavoursome dark mild. Real black cherries added.

24. Ruby Plum Porter 4.8% A deep ruby beer with roasted malt, cinnamon and sweet plum on the nose. Pleasant fruit and bitterness from pacific gem and Waimea hopping.

25. Little Green Nutter 5.0% A green hopped amber beer using hops and nuts picked on site. Subtle garden hop bitterness balanced with full biscuit maltiness and a hint of hazelnut on the nose.

26. Undertakers Varnish 7.0% A full bodied stout. Notes of caramel, custard and custard cream biscuits. Slightly smokey with a chocolate finish

Leigh On Sea Brewery, Essex

27. SS9 Stout 8.4% A seriously strong stout bearing the brewery postcode. Deep boozy notes of coffee and chocolate from a range of dark roasted malts.

Osset, West Yorkshire

28. Blood of your Empire 7.0% Forged from intense espresso, salted caramel and dark roasted malt, this decadent Stout delivers wave after wave of bold flavour. Velvety smooth and impossibly drinkable, layers of freshly roasted coffee and caramel unfold beneath a cascading nitro head, while salt amplifies every note.

Rigg & Furrow Acklington Park Farm Northumberland

An authentic farmhouse brewery. Giving a new lease of life to an old milking parlour, where they now brew beers originally brewed for thirsty farm workers. Brewing by hand, this independent, family run brewery creates exciting, beers. All their beers are Vegan friendly.

29. Nut brown 4.5% With so many Citra hopped beers and IPA's Why not give this wonderful AmberChestnut coloured ale a try. A complex malt forward beer with a rich chestnut colour. Full bodied & slightly sweet with nutty biscuity flavours

Sambrook's, Wandsworth London SW18

What can you say about this wonderful brewer who started as Young's left us. Then lost their Yelverton Road brewery to developers only to be offered the Heritage Brewery site on the old Young's site. Truly a Phoenix from the ashes story. Once again John Hatch has produced a memorable one off for this festival only.

30. Phoenix 4.3% From the Micro brewery set up.

31. Valour English IPA 5.3% A traditional English IPA brewed especially for Lord Battersea to remind us what IPA used to taste like before being hi-jacked by the Craft brewers and turned into something completely different

32. Sarah Jane Bennet Stout 6.0% The Royal Victoria Patriotic Building resident ghost is commemorated with this excellent stout with added liquorice from the John Hatch micro brewery within Sambrooks brewery here in Wandsworth. Sarah Jane was detained in the Superintendants bathroom following a mis-demeanour. She knocked over an oil lamp and burnt to death in the Tower. At the inquest the Matron was asked by the Coroner why she, nor any of her staff, went to the aid of the poor girl screaming for her life. She told the Court coldly, "How were we to tell one scream from an orphan over and above those of the others habitually screaming themselves to sleep each night. She was sacked and is buried in nearby Magdalen Road cemetery.

33. Lord Battersea Dark Ruby Mild 6.0% An attempt to replicate the Sarah Hughes Dark Ruby Mild

Skinner's Truro, Cornwall

34. Betty Stogg's 4.0% Amber/Gold. Sweetish, with grapefruit and tropical fruit flavours which fade into a long bitter finish

Theakston's, Masham, North Yorkshire

35. Portergeist 4.2% Theakston Portergeist is a spooky salted caramel inky black porter, Haunting harmony of caramel and toffee, wrapped in roasted malt and a whisper of sea salt. I am not normally a fan of themed beers. But this really is good MUST TRY

36. Old Peculier 5.6% Dark ruby red. Possibly one of the country's most well-known and loved ales. This unique, beautiful brew is often imitated but never matched and is sold literally all over the world. With countless awards to its credit, it is something of which every Briton can be very proud and is the epitome of the greatest of British brewing tradition. The name pays tribute to the unique ecclesiastical status of Masham as a 'Court of the Peculier' and is also a reference to the strong characteristic of the beer.

Thornbridge, Bakewell, Derbyshire

37. Worker Bee 4.6% Blonde Bitter. Yes there are lovely blonde bitters at this Festival in between all these sledgehammer Halloween specials. A traditional Manchester bitter packed with flavour and character

Three Kings, North Shields Tyne & Wear

38. Ring of Fire 4.5% An American Pale Ale

Twisted Tree, Bicester, Oxfordshire.

39. Old Root Barrel 10.4% Barrel aged Imperial stout. A rich imperial stout aged in PX sherry casks, where deep roasted malt meets luscious dark fruit and warming sherry sweetness. Layers of chocolate, raisin and plum lead to a smooth, indulgent finish with a touch of oak and gentle warmth" This is sensational. PX sherry is the black treacle like sweet sherry usually sold in half bottles.
